This event will explore best practices in pro-life youth advocacy, as shown by several leading pro-life advocates from Europe, Africa, Latin America, and the US. Our panelists will talk about the pro-life landscape in their countries, messaging that resonates with young people, common obstacles, and what it takes to build a culture of life. Participants will also examine the pro-abortion movement's deepest flaws: scientific denialism, emotional manipulation, and a vision of progress that devalues motherhood, explaining why more and more young people are deliberately walking away from this narrative.
